TECHNICAL MEETING

TWO AUSTRALIAN ACOUSTIC SOCIETY
AWARD WINNING PROJECTS
What are they and where are they going?

- The Date: Wednesday 21st February 2007
- The Venue: NATIONAL ACOUSTICS LABORATORIES
126 GREVILLE STREET
CHATSWOOD
- The Topics: Part 1 - Jingfeng Xu: "Flat-walled multi-layered anechoic linings: optimization and application";
Part 2 - Chris Matthews: "Silenceair - From Concept to Commercialisation"
- The Time: 6.30 pm to 8.00 pm

The CSR Bradford Insulation "Excellence in Acoustics Award" is given each year in recognition of excellence and innovation in acoustics, and hence of up to date technology, creativity and relevancy. In 2004 a Sydney University graduate, Chris Field, won the award for his PhD work on developing the "Silenceair" a compact ventilation silencer. Last year another Sydney University graduate, Jingfeng Xu won the award for his PhD work on the optimization of flat wall anechoic linings.

In this technical meeting Jingfeng Xu will describe his work and its commercial potential and Chris Matthews will talk about the commercialization of Chris Field's work.
